1 Momentum Group [page 16]

An abstract mixture of botanical references, earthy tones and natural brights mingle in the new Philosophy Collection. Worth pondering over. Available at www.themomgroup.com

2 Creation Baumann

Silver and Steel, engineered in Trevira CS, aluminum, nano-technology and woven steel will come to the U.S. in August. Available at www.creationbaumann.com

3 Digital Leather

Can you read this chair's poker face? Upholstered by SIF Technology Company, this high-tech digitally printed leather is holding a full house of innovation. Find out more at www.digitalleather.com

4 Janet Yonaty

Colorful grandeur is paramount in Janet Yonaty's wide range of textiles and her new collections with regal reds, greens and golds continue that trend. Available at www.janetyonaty.com

5 Louise Body

Each of her designs emits a distinctly English sentiment that invites you to freely imagine its story and your own. Next up for Louise is a collaboration with Dr. Martens footwear. Available at www.louisebodywallprint.com

6 Designtex

2008 was quite the year for India both bad [Taj attacks] and good [Slumdog!] The country's undeniable influence has crept its way into our favorite textiles. See more of them at www.designtex.com
